

Courses for Closed Groups 2007

Melton College has an established reputation for providing group courses for organisations from all over the world. This page explains what we can offer for Closed Groups. However, the details below are just a starting point, we are happy to tailor the course exactly to the requirements of your group!

What is a Closed Group?

Ten or more students taught in the same class.

When can the College offer Closed Group courses? Although we can offer Closed Group Courses all year, it is unlikely that we will be able to offer them during the busiest weeks of the summer.

The Timetable

Closed Group Courses are normally skills based. However, we can tailor the tuition to suit the requirements of your group.

Projects

Many groups choose to incorporate their own project

Afternoon Activity Programme

The alternative to afternoon tuition is a carefully planned series of activities, led by a member of the College staff. Groups can also add additional evening activities, for example; bowling, swimming, barbecues, quiz nights, cinema visits and ghost walks.
